PUBLIC MASS

The moment of great joy has now arrived. From this evening Thursday 10th July, 10:00am, we shall be celebrating public Mass. All the expectations that we are so used to in other places are also observed at Church with social distancing and hand sanitizing regimes. As you can imagine, the church layout is looking a bit different with benches being moved and areas taped off so that the proper distancing can be kept. The spacing within our church has been measured to between 1-2 metres which has had an effect on our Mass times. They are as follows:

Monday- Friday 10:00am (no sign on Friday)

Saturday 9am

Sunday 8am (Saturday), 9:00am, 10am, 11:00am, 4pm, 5pm

As St. Luke's, French Hall is attached to the Registrar as we are not able to host Mass there.

The distance we have measured out means that a line standing is compulsory. We ask that you please bring your own as we will not supply them. Friends who have volunteered from the parish will be at the Church to welcome you and guide you to your place. At the door you will be asked to deposit your track and trace card in the box (please see further in the newsletter for details of this). Please do not look for your own favourite places, we need to be strict in our movement so allow our volunteers to direct you properly. Places available are marked by a green dot. The Mass will have no singing, no leading prayers, no offertory and no sign of peace, but before holy communion the priest will say "The Body of Christ" to which everybody responds as one voice
