

10:00am Harvest Mass

Entrance: Come ye thankful people, come (Henry Alford 1810-71)

Come, ye thankful people, come, raise the song of harvest home;
All is safely gathered in, ere the winter storms begin;
God our Maker doth provide for our wants to be supplied;
Come to God's own temple, come, raise the song of harvest home.

We ourselves are God's own field, fruit unto his praise to yield;
wheat and tares together sown, unto joy or sorrow grown;
First the blade, and then the ear, then the full corn shall appear:
Lord of harvest, grant that we wholesome grain and pure may be.

For the Lord our God shall come, and shall take his harvest home;
from his field shall purge away all that doth offend, that day;
give his angels charge at last in the fire the tares to cast;
But the fruitful ears to store in his garner evermore.

Then, thou Church triumphant, come, raise the song of harvest home;
all be safely gathered in, free from sorrow, free from sin,
there, forever purified, in God's garner to abide;
Come, ten thousand angels, come, raise the glorious harvest home.

Preparation of the Gifts: Make me a channel of your peace Dedicated to Mrs Frances Tracy (© 1967 OCP Publications)

Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there is hatred, let me bring your love.
Where there is injury your pardon, Lord,
And where there's doubt true faith in you.

Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there's despair in life, let me bring hope.
Where there is darkness only light,
and where there's sadness ever joy.

Oh, Master, grant that I may never seek so much to be consoled as to console,
to be understood as to understand,
to be loved, as to love, with all my soul.

Make me a channel of your peace.
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
in giving to all men that we receive,
and in dying that we're born to eternal life.
