

ENTRANCE HYMN – Into one we are all gathered (Book 312)

Into one we all are gathered through the love of Christ, Let us then rejoice with gladness. In Him we find love.
Let us fear and love the living God, and love and cherish all mankind.

Where charity and love are, there is God.

Therefore, when we are together in the love of Christ, let our minds know no division, strife or bitterness, may Christ our God be in our midst. Through Christ our Lord all love is found.

May we see your face in glory, Christ our loving God. With the blessed saints of heaven give us lasting joy. We will then possess true happiness, and love for all eternity.

OFFERTORY – Immortal, Invisible (Book No 301)

Immortal, invisible, God only wise, in light inaccessible hid from our eyes, most blessed, most glorious, the Ancient of Days, almighty, victorious, thy great name we praise.

Unresting, unchanging, and silent as light; nor wanting, nor wasting, thou rulest in might; thy justice like mountains high-soaring above thy clouds which are fountains of goodness and love.

To all life thou givest, to both great and small; in all life thou livest, the true life of all; we blossom and flourish as leaves on the tree, and wither and perish, but nought changeth thee.

Great Father of glory, pure Father of light, thine angels adore thee, all veiling their sight; all laud we would render, O help us to see:
'Tis only the splendour of light hideth thee.
